The Brown Shoe Co's. COME IN

and make your selection while the lines are unbroken.

Remember that we have all of the new patterns in Dress Goods that must only be seen to meet your approval and admiration. This is also true of our big line of Ladies' and Misses' Muslin Underwear.

Shoes-Shoes

If you don't need a pair of Shoes to-day you will before long, and, therefore, it's a good idea to get posted on the best place to buy. We do not expect to be able to sell you unless it is to your interest to buy here. It is easy to prove that to you, however, if you will give us a chance. Will you?

Lace Curtains The Brown Shoe Co's

Our large assortment of Lace Curtains can not fail to please you and will greatly help to beautify your home. We have them from per pair. Come early.

40c to $4.00

Our Gents' and Ladies' Furnishing Goods are right up to the minute, and are all that one could wish in Style, Quality and Price.

WHITE HOUSE FULL DRESS SHOES For Women

WE have made a greater effort this season to show a strictly first-class line of goods than ever. Our entire stock is well-selected---no cheap, shoddy goods of any kind---hence here is the place to "get your money's worth." We will take much pleasure in showing you through our store, and we believe we will have no trouble in convincing you of the real merits of our merchandise. We are more than anxious to serve you, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to come and see us.

Salisbury Squibblings.

The Eastern Star order presented the Masons with a full set of office furniture consisting of desks, chairs, etc.

Lee Webster is erecting a nice cottage on his residence lot, west of the Christian church, and Lazar Loeb is preparing to build a fine home on West Fourth street.

L. B. Warner and wife have returned from a trip to Excelsior Springs where they went for the benefit of the former's health. We are glad to learn he was benefited.

Mrs. Clarence Sheaves of six miles southeast of town died suddenly at her home Sunday morning, leaving a husband and a child. We could not get full particulars.

If our items are a little shy this week it is because in our absence we have failed to keep up with all local happenings, but will get in line as soon as something happens.

Editor Ritzenthaler is suffering from a bad case of sore eyes and is waiting for some one to come in and throw down a dollar to relieve him. Delinquents will please take notice.

J. H. Wayland and Rome McNabb have just returned from a prospecting trip through Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas and are pleased with their trip. Results are expected later.

A. W. Johnson returned from Jefferson City Sunday with no sign of small-pox about him, but was kept busy explaining why he did not take it---and telling his interrogators that it was because it was "nailed down."

We learn from Miss Bethena Brummall that she is not eligible to the office for which she has been nominated and will have to withdraw. She says the law requires a man and a voter to fill the position and she is neither. Too bad!

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Og Lee which occurred at the family home, a few miles east of town, soon after our items were mailed last week. Deceased was a highly-respected woman and was loved and esteemed by all who knew her. We extend to the bereaved husband our tenderest sympathy.

Mrs. Josephine Wayland, widow of the late Eli Wayland, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rebecca Terrill, in Columbia, Mo., Monday and her remains were brought to Salisbury for interment Tuesday. The funeral took place from the Baptist church, conducted by Revs. Pitts and others. She was a kind old lady and has gone to the reward of the just and faithful.

Steve Crawford, who is preparing for an extended visit to relatives in Ohio, has leased his home on the North side to Ben Buffington for a year, and will try being a Buckeye for awhile, but does not intend to abandon the Prairie Queen. For many years he has filled the office of City marshal and is known to everybody. We wish him and his good wife success in their new venture and will count the days until they return.

Bank circles were much disturbed here Saturday by the rumor that T. M. Bentley, cashier of the People's bank, was short in his accounts, and for a time a "run" on the bank seemed certain, but the bank directors promptly came to the front and pledged themselves to cover the shortage, and soon restored confidence. Mr. Bentley has made an assignment to Fred

Lamb and the whole matter will be straightened out without the loss of a dollar to the depositors.

Lewis' Mill Laconics.

C. P. Nordmeyer was a visitor at Mr. Kramm's Sunday.

We are having fine weather, and some are talking of sowing oats this week.

Road work will soon begin. Those old horse-killing graders should be supplanted by one of those two-wheel graders which can be run by one man and two teams, while the old makes of graders require from 8 to 10 horses to operate them. Send in your name to C. P. Nordmeyer, Glasgow, and get a description of the new kind.

"State of Missouri vs. Jordan Spence" was the title of a case tried before Justice Geo. Binks Friday. Spence is the darkey who carved Ned Rucker, col., some time ago. He was found guilty and fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 20 days in the county jail, making a total of 50 days in default of the payment of his fine and costs. The state was represented at the trial by Prosecuting Attorney J. E. Montgomery while Spence appeared as his own attorney.

A meeting of Gen. Sterling Price camp, No. 710, Confederate veterans, is called to meet at Odd Fellows' hall in Keytesville Saturday, March 30, 1907, at 1:30 o'clock p. m. All members are urged to be in attendance, and all entitled to membership are invited to attend. Official. By order of

J. C. WALLACE,
A. G. ARRINGTON, Com.
Adjutant.

We learn from the Tribune that Dr. C. T. Collins traded his lots south of the Peoples bank in Triplett to Joseph A. Hooper for his residence and two lots. Mr. Hooper getting several hundred dollars to boot. Clyde Bowman traded the property he bought of D. H. Zimmerman to Dr. Collins for the Hooper property. Mr. Hooper will grade up his lots, plant shade trees and build a granitoid walk around it. Mr. Hooper will remove to the residence now occupied by J. E. Preston just as soon as Mr. Preston can vacate.

INTERSTATE traffic in intoxicating liquors, protecting labor against the competition of convict labor, and the post-office fraud order bill were not reported by the judiciary committee of the senate although they passed the house some weeks before. This way of postponing legislation that raises uncomfortable political issues is an old dodge of the Republican leaders of both houses.
